- 5. PAYMENT: To avoid late fees, pay after you register. Due to this collaborative effort between the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis and the Wichita State University Center for Economic Education, the student cost is only $100 for each credit-hour course ($100 per credit hour) regardless of residency. Other WSU graduate courses typically run from $300 to $1,000 per credit hour. To pay from myWSU, click on myFinances.

- a. Go to the Accounts Receivable Links.

- b. Click on View/Pay my Bill – Student Account Suite.

- 6. TRANSCRIPTS: WSU will post grades and official transcripts at the end of the term. Obtain information about transcripts on the university's transcript FAQ page.

Please note: While you register/enroll for the course(s) through WSU, the coursework will be completed through the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis Canvas account. After you register and pay for your courses, contact Amanda Geiger (Amanda.Geiger@stls.frb.org) from the email addresss you wish to use for your Canvas login. Once registration is confirmed with WSU, we will add you to Canvas and coursework can begin.

While courses are self-paced, students must register and complete coursework within the term dates.
