

CULTIVATING BROADER INTEREST IN ECONOMICS

The St. Louis Fed invests in every stage of the talent pipeline encouraging individuals from all backgrounds to enter and excel in the economics field.

K-8	High School	College	FRS Employment	Ph.D. Program
We provide foundational econ and financial literacy	We build skills, mentor, offer a Fed experience, and explain econ careers	We deepen quantitative skills, mentoring, and access to econ professionals	We provide real-world econ career experience	We collaborate, with a higher level of economist mentoring and experience at the Fed
Educator Professional Development Native Economic and Financial Education Empowerment (NEFEE) Economic and Personal Finance Curriculum	Educator Professional Development NEFEE Economic and Personal Finance Curriculum Student Board of Directors Program: - Summer internships - Mentorships with senior research associates	 Women in Economics Symposium Podcast series Undergraduate Summer Intern Program Mentorships with economists 	 Research Associate Program Engagement with Ph.D. dissertation fellows Tuition reimbursement for professional development RA Jobs page Fed System recruiting Fedeconjobs.org 	Dissertation Fellows Program and Workshop - American Economic Association summer fellows

